After acting, the board must inform the general membership within seven calendar days.

2.12 Action Without Meeting

Each such signed consent, or a true copy thereof, shall be placed in the Corporate Record Book.

2.13 Failure to Hold Annual Meeting

If, within any 13-month period, except as governed for in Bylaw 2.11, an annual Members' Meeting and/or election of directors and officers is not held, any Member may demand, by registered mail to any officer, that the meeting and/or election be held within a reasonable time. If the meeting and/or election is not held within sixty (60) days of the demand, any Member may compel the meeting and/or election by legal action against the Board of Directors.

2.14 Place of Meetings

Meetings of the Members shall be held at any place within or outside of the State of Texas as may be designated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof

2.15 Special Meetings

Unless provided otherwise by Statute, the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, or these Bylaws, Special meetings of the Members may be called at any time by the President, the Board of Directors, or one or more of the Members holding one-tenth or more of all the votes entitled to vote at the meeting. Such meeting may be called for any purpose. The party calling the meeting may do so only by written request sent by email or delivered in person to the President or Secretary. The officer receiving the written request shall give notice of the meeting to all the Members entitled to vote at the meeting within the required time, then the person or persons calling the meeting may fix the time of the meeting and give the notice. The notice shall be sent pursuant to Section 2.16 of these Bylaws. The notice of a Special meeting must state the purpose or purposes of the meeting and absent consent of every Member to the specific action taken, shall be limited to purposes plainly stated in the notice, notwithstanding other provisions herein.

2.16 Notice of Meetings

The officer or persons giving notice of a Members' meeting shall deliver written notice to each Director and to each member entitled to vote at the meeting at least ten (10) but not more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. Such notice shall state the place, day, and hour of the meeting, and, in case of a Special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the Special meeting is called. The notice may be given personally, by mail, by e-mail or by other social media methods. The notice shall be addressed to each recipient at such address as appears in the Corporation's records or as the recipient has given to the Corporation for the purpose of notice. Whenever the Corporation has more than 1,000 members at the time a meeting is scheduled, additional adequate notice may be required. Meetings provided for in these Bylaws shall not be invalid for lack of notice if all persons entitled to notice consent to the meeting in writing or are present at the meeting in person or by proxy and do not object to the notice given. Consent may be given either before or after the meeting. Notice of the reconvening of an adjourned meeting is not necessary unless the meeting is adjourned more than thirty (30) days past the date stated in the notice, in which case notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of any Special meeting.

2.17 Eligibility to Vote at Members' Meetings

A member in good standing is entitled to vote at a meeting of the Members of the corporation. A member in good standing is one who has paid all required fees and dues and is not suspended as of the date of the meeting. A member in good standing is eligible to vote regardless of their age.

2.18 Quorum of Members

As to each item of business to be voted on, the presence (in person or by proxy) of the persons who are entitled to vote at least one tenth (1/10) of the Members' votes on that matter shall constitute the quorum necessary for the consideration of the matter at a Members' meeting. Members voting by mail, if authorized by the Board of Directors to do so, shall be considered present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present for the matter under consideration. If a quorum is present, every act done or resolution passed by a majority of the Members present shall be the act of the Members.

2.19 Adjournment For Lack of Quorum

No business may be transacted in the absence of a quorum, or upon the withdrawal of enough Members to leave less than a quorum, other than to adjourn the meeting from time to time by the vote of a majority of the votes represented at the meeting.

2.20 Actions of Membership

The Members will try to act by consensus. However, if a consensus is not available on a matter or proposal, the vote of a majority of voting Members in good standing, present and entitled vote at a meeting at which a quorum is present, is enough to constitute the act of the Members unless law or the bylaws require a greater number.

2.21 Voting by Voice or Ballot

Generally, elections for Directors may be by voice and not by ballot. Whenever a Member demands election by ballot before the voting begins, voting must be by ballot. Whenever voting by mail is authorized, all voting on that matter must be by ballot.

2.22 Proxies

A member entitled to vote at a meeting of Members of the corporation may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the Member or his or her duly authorized attorney in fact. Unless otherwise provided in the proxy or by law, each proxy shall be revocable and shall not be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution.

2.23 Early Voting by Mail or Email

The Board of Directors may authorize Members to vote early by mail or email on the election of Directors and Officers or on any other matter that the Members may vote on. Ballots by mail or email must be signed by the member casting the vote and sent directly to the Secretary or designated officer no later than four (4) days prior to the day of the election.

2.24 Reproductions of Signed Writings

A photographic copy or similar reproduction of a signed Notice, Waiver, Consent, Ballot, or Proxy by a member, director, or committee member is to be regarded as being signed by the member, director, or committee member.

ARTICLE THREE - BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

3.01 Management of Corporation

The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, who may exercise such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not prescribed by statute, the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, or these Bylaws and as directed or required to be exercised or done by the members of the Corporation.

3.02 Number, Qualifications, and Tenure of Directors

The number of Directors shall be at least three (3) and no more than fifteen (15), none of whom needs to be residents of Texas. Directors must be members of the Corporation. The number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment of these Bylaws. Any decrease in the total number of Directors shall not have the effect of reducing the total number of Directors below three (3), nor of shortening the tenure that any incumbent director would otherwise enjoy.

3.03 Vacancies

Vacancies on the Board of Directors shall exist upon: (a) the failure of the Members to elect the full authorized number of Directors to be voted for at any Member's meeting at which any Director is to be elected; (b) a declaration of vacancy under Section 4.03 of these Bylaws; (c) an increase in the authorized number of Directors; or (d) the death, resignation, or removal of any Director.

3.03 (a) Declaration of Vacancy

A majority of the Board of Directors may declare the office of a Director vacant if the Director is adjudged incompetent by a court; is convicted of a crime involving theft, deceit or dishonesty, or of any crime which is a Class B misdemeanor or greater; or fails to accept the office of Director.

3.03 (b) Filling Vacancies by Directors

Vacancies other than those caused by an increase in the number of Directors shall be temporarily filled by majority vote of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. Each Director so elected shall hold office until a successor is elected at a Members' meeting. Vacancies reducing the number of Directors to less than three (3) shall be filled before the transaction of any other business.

3.03 (c) Filling Vacancies by Members

Any vacancy on the Board of Directors, including those caused by an increase in the number of Directors, shall be filled by the Members at the next annual meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose. Upon the resignation of a Director tendered to take effect at a future time, the Board or the Members may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

3.04 Removal of Directors and Resignation of Directors

The entire Board of Directors or any individual Director may be removed from office by a vote of a majority of Members entitled to vote at an election of Directors, or for any other probable cause as determined by vote of a majority of the Directors at any regular or special meeting of the Board. However, if less than the entire Board is to be removed, and the Members are given the right to cumulate votes in the Articles of Incorporation, no one of the Directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him if then voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors. If any or all Directors are so removed, their replacements may be elected at the same meeting. A Director may be removed for failure to perform one's duties, including but not limited to missing three (3) consecutive meetings. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors. Any resignation shall take effect on the date upon receipt of that notice or at any later time specified therein, and that acceptance of that resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

3.05 Duties of Directors

Directors will discharge their duties, including any duties as committee Members, in good faith, with ordinary care, and in a manner they reasonably believe to be in the Corporation's best interest. In this context, the term "ordinary care" means the care that ordinarily prudent persons in similar positions would exercise under similar circumstances. In discharging any duty imposed or power conferred on directors, directors may, in good faith, rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, concerning the Corporation or another person that has been prepared or presented by a variety of persons, including officers and employees of the Corporation, professional advisors or experts such as accountants or legal counsel. A director is not relying in good faith if he or she has knowledge concerning a matter in question that renders reliance unwarranted.

3.06 Action by Consent of Board Without Meeting

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting and shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of Directors if all the Directors consent to the action in writing via mail or email. This written consent may be given individually or collectively.

3.07 Place of Meetings

Meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at any location as designated by the Board.

3.08 Regular Meetings

The notice may include a tentative agenda, but the meeting shall not be confined to any agenda included with the notice, and none is required.

Upon providing notice, the Secretary or other officer sending notice shall sign and file in the Corporate Record Book a statement of the details of the notice given to each Director. If such statement should later not be found in the Corporate Record Book, due notice shall be presumed.

3.10 Telephone Meetings

Subject to the notice provisions required by these Bylaws and by the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Board of Directors may participate in and hold a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment by which all persons participating can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except participation for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

3.11 Waiver of Notice of Meetings

Any Director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a Director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless specifically required by law or by these Bylaws.

3.12 Quorum

The presence throughout any Directors' meeting, or adjournment thereof, of a majority of the authorized number of Directors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum to transact any business, except to adjourn. If a quorum is present, every act done or resolution passed by a majority of the Directors present and voting shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws. Directors present by proxy shall not be counted toward a quorum.

3.13 Adjournment and Notice of Adjourned Meetings

A quorum of the Directors may adjourn any Directors' meeting to meet again at a stated hour on a stated day. Notice of the time and place where an adjourned meeting will be held need not be given to absent Directors if the time and place is fixed at the adjourned meeting. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn to a set time and place if notice is duly given to the absent members, or until the time of the next regular meeting of the Board.

3.14 Conduct of Meetings

3.15 Compensation of Directors

Directors as such shall not receive any stated salaries for their services, but by resolution of the Board of Directors, a fixed sum plus expenses of attendance, if any, may be paid to Directors for attendance at each meeting of the Board. This policy does not preclude any Director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefore or reimbursement for expenses for such additional service.

3.16 Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Corporation shall indemnify all officers, Directors, employees, and agents to the extent required by law. The Board of Directors may, by separate resolution, provide for additional indemnification as allowed by law.

3.18 Board Committees - Authority to Appoint

The Board of Directors may designate one or more other committees to conduct the business and affairs of the Corporation to the extent authorized. Each Board Committee shall contain at least two (2) members, at least one of whom is a Director. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the powers and membership of, fill vacancies in, and dissolve any committee. Members of any committee may receive such compensation as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate. The designation of any committee and the delegation of authority thereto shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law. The Board may also elect or appoint Members' committees, but these committees shall not conduct the business of the Corporation. No committee has the authority of the Board to:

- a) Amend the articles of incorporation;
